The image shows a grid-based drawing exercise with three rows. Each row contains a partial drawing on the left and a corresponding drawing on the right that needs to be completed.

- Row 1: On the left, a blue trapezoid with an orange rectangle on top. On the right, the blue trapezoid is shown, and a single vertical orange line is drawn, representing the right side of the rectangle.
- Row 2: On the left, a pink cross-like shape with a purple square in the center and a green V-shape below. On the right, the pink shape, purple square, and green V-shape are shown, with some lines extending to the right, indicating the drawing is incomplete.
- Row 3: On the left, a black stepped line drawing with two dots. On the right, the same drawing is shown, but with some lines missing, indicating it needs to be completed.
